

Summary of the British Horse Feeds' BRC Endurance Team Championship

The British Horse Feeds' BRC Endurance Team Championship is open to all Riding Clubs in England, Wales and Scotland.

Here is a brief overview of the British Horse Feeds' BRC Endurance Team Event:

- Riding Club Teams are able to compete at any Endurance GB (EGB) ride and Scottish Endurance Riding Club (SERC) with a suitable class of between 30 and 42km in distance.
- The above classes are called Qualifying Rides.
- Teams must consist of a minimum of three and a maximum of six combinations.
- Any number of teams can be put forward from a single Club.
- A team can be formed from members of more than one Club.
- A score for each rider at a Qualifying Ride is calculated based on the speed at which the class is completed and the final pulse of the horse.
- A team score is calculated by adding up the three best individual scores in the team.
- A team is allocated to one of ten Regions based on their geographical location. There is a League Table for each Region.
- The team score added is added to the relevant League Table only if it exceeds any existing team score from a previous Qualifying Ride. This means that the highest score for a team always goes forward to the League Table.
- The League Tables will be closed at midnight on Sunday 8th September 2019.
- The top team in each of the ten Regional League Tables will go forward to compete in the Final. In addition, the top ten from all the remaining teams will go forward to the Final. Some wild card places may also be awarded by the national organisers.
- The final is on Sunday 6th October 2019 at the British Horse Feeds' Red Dragon Festival of Endurance, at the Royal Welsh Showground, Builth Wells, Powys, LD2 3SY where up to twenty teams will compete against other for the championship.
- Cash prizes of £200, £100 and £50 are awarded to the 1st, 2nd and 3rd teams at the Final, together with a further bonus of £100 to the top novice team.
